Good Morning IS 201! My name is Emily from class 851, and I'm here on behalf of the SEAL Team for this Thoughtful Thursday.

Who is someone that you personally look up to? Maybe this person is a family member, a friend, or a staff member. But if you have a person in mind, today is a perfect day to give them flowers! Today is Bring Flowers to Someone Day, and this day is celebrated joyfully with all in the purpose of flowers! By giving someone flowers, you're not only showing them the fact that you look up to them but also feel thankful and appreciative. Can't figure out which type of flowers to give? Here's a list of some flowers and the meanings behind what they represent:

- Roses: Passionate, loving, and expressive people
- Sunflowers: Outgoing, optimistic, and warm-hearted people
- Cherry Blossoms: Gentle, elegant, and calm people
- Daisies: Innocent, friendly, and cheerful people
- Lavenders: Soothing, nurturing, and wise people

If this list of flowers doesn't quite fit the person you have in mind, feel free to do a little research during your free time! And if you don't have time to buy real flowers, don't worry; you can always make paper flowers from home or school supplies. As Mother Teresa once said, "It's not how much we give, but how much love we put into giving."

Thank you for listening and have a Tulip and Tiger Lily Thursday 😊
